A SEAT IS RESERVED FOR YOU

Dearly Beloved, Welcome to the month of October—the tenth month, a season of double grace. This month, we embrace the theme “Divine Interruption”, trusting that God will graciously intervene in our plans and redirect our steps into His perfect will.

UNDERSTANDING DIVINE INTERRUPTION

- Divine interruption is God’s way of stepping into our human agenda to fulfill His sovereign purpose.

- Biblical Examples:

- Saul was interrupted on the road to Damascus and transformed into Paul the Apostle (Acts 9).

- Mary received a divine assignment to carry the Savior (Luke 1:30–31).

- Joseph was sold into slavery, yet God used it to position him for greatness (Genesis 37; 50:20).

RESPONDING TO GOD’S REDIRECTION

- God’s interruptions may come as trials, delays, or unexpected shifts—but they are never meant to harm us.

- They often dismantle the ordinary to usher in the extraordinary.

- Trust His leading, even when it feels inconvenient or confusing.

INTERRUPTIONS FOR EVANGELISM

- Divine interruptions also call us to share Christ beyond our comfort zones.

- Philip was redirected from a revival to reach one Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:26–40).

- Your daily routine may be someone’s appointed hour of salvation—be sensitive and obedient.

PRAYER & DECLARATION

As we journey through October:
- May the Lord interrupt every plan not aligned with His purpose.

- May He open unexpected doors and use you to bring souls into His kingdom.

- May divine interruptions lead to joy, victory, and eternal impact.
Happy New Month!

May the Lord strengthen your faith, renew your spirit, and usher you into your season of divine reward.

POEM FOR THE MONTH

DIVINE INTERRUPTION

All hail the Almighty God,
The source of the entire creation,
Able and capable to do all,
Ready to intervene when invited.
He can, and He will.

Divinely settled Solomon,
In wisdom and grace,
He reigned in peace for years
And Joseph, lived,
To fulfill his dreams.

He can and will provide,
For our heads,
Make Manna available as food,
Provide succor for His children
As the days of old

Arrows by day and night,
Fly in vain,
Remains our shield and buckler,
Tamed all weapons formed against us,
Made them prosper not.

Able to accomplish all tasks,
His words; His bond,
His words, a sure command
As they are Yea and Amen
Able to accomplish

All fervent heart desire
By grace are His consent
His latter wine better
Than the former
His balm of Gilead
Soothing and healing
All troubled souls

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT

BEATS THAT RESONATE WITH FAITH

In today's world, music plays a significant role in shaping the lives of youths. While secular music can be catchy, it's essential for Christian youths to prioritize music that resonates with their faith.

The Bible teaches us in 1 Corinthians 10:31, "So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God."

Let us as youth focus on music that inspires, uplifts, and points us to God. Christian music can be a powerful tool for worship, encouragement, and evangelism.

Let us as youth use music to declare our faith, express our joy, and share God's love with others. May our playlists reflect our values and glorify God in all we do Amen.

ELDER'S CORNER

WISDOM FOR THE NEW GENERATION

Dear Child of God, as you embrace this new month, let your heart be anchored in God. Remember, "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Proverbs 9:10).

Walk carefully, choosing wisdom over haste, integrity over convenience, and faith over fear. Do not journey through life alone; "he that walks with wise men shall be wise" (Proverbs 13:20).

Value godly mentors and cherish their counsel, for "in the multitude of counselors there is safety" (Proverbs 11:14). Above all, guard your faith, for "without faith it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6).

Live with eternity in view, knowing that every choice builds a legacy others will follow. Trust God's timing, and let your life shine brighter with each passing day. May your steps be ordered by the Lord, your strength renewed, and your faith remain a testimony to generations after you.

DIVINE INTERRUPTION

Proverbs 16:9 declares, "A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps." This verse reminds us that while we may carefully craft our goals and map out our future, God often steps in with divine interruptions—not to derail us, but to redirect us toward His perfect will.

Divine interruptions are not accidents. They are moments when heaven intervenes in our earthly plans. Sometimes, they come as closed doors, unexpected delays, or sudden changes. Though uncomfortable, they are often the very tools God uses to protect us, grow us, and position us for greater purpose.

Consider Joseph—his dreams were interrupted by betrayal and imprisonment, yet those detours led him to destiny. Or Mary, whose quiet life was interrupted by an angel's announcement, ushering in the Savior of the world. When God interrupts, it's because He sees what we cannot.

So today, I encourage you: don't resist the interruption. Embrace it. Trust that God is working behind the scenes. His ways are higher, His timing is perfect, and His plan is always for our good.

Don't resist divine interruption. Embrace it. Trust that God sees the full picture and is working all things for your good. When He redirects your steps, it's because He's leading you into something far greater than you imagined.

May you find peace in the pause, clarity in the change, and faith in the unknown. Let God direct your steps—even when it means surrendering your plans. Blessings and grace to you all.

||| FASHION CORNER |||

INDECENT DRESSING AND CRAZY FASHION SENSE: A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE

In today's world, fashion trends have a powerful influence on children, teenagers, and even mothers. Unfortunately, many of these trends promote indecent dressing, clothing that exposes the body in ways that contradict modesty, decency, and Christian values. The rise of so-called "crazy fashion sense" has blurred the lines between cultural expression and spiritual compromise. For believers, this issue goes beyond outward appearance; it profoundly affects our relationship with God and the potential for divine intervention in our lives.

The Influence of Indecent Dressing: Children and teenagers are particularly vulnerable to fashion pressures. The media, music industry, and social platforms often glorify styles that celebrate immodesty such as ripped clothing, extremely tight outfits, and designs that emphasize sexuality rather than dignity. Sadly, mothers who should model godliness sometimes adopt these same trends, thereby normalizing them at home. When parents dress in ways that disregard biblical standards, they unintentionally teach their children that such practices are acceptable.

Scripture reminds us "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety" (1 Timothy 2:9). This principle applies to both genders, regardless of age. Clothing should reflect purity, not sensuality. When fashion dictates our values instead of the Word of God, we risk drifting away from His presence.

Indecent dressing carries spiritual consequences:

- Loss of spiritual sensitivity: A focus on outward appearance can dull our awareness of the Holy Spirit.
- Opening doors to temptation: Immodesty can foster lust, pride, and envy—barriers to divine connection.
- Dishonor to the body: Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19–20), and how we dress reflects our reverence for God.
- Corruption of future generations: When children grow up seeing immodesty as normal, they lose sight of modesty as a virtue.

God's favor requires reverence. Just as Queen Esther dressed with dignity before approaching the king, believers must reflect Christ in their appearance. Modesty isn't legalism—it's love and obedience.

Call to Action: Mothers must model godliness, youth must resist worldly fashion, and churches must teach modesty as a virtue. True beauty lies not in exposure, but in reflecting Christ surrendered to Christ.

Conclusion: Indecent dressing, though often seen as personal expression, carries serious spiritual consequences for Christians. It can weaken one's connection with God, negatively influence future generations, and obstruct divine favor. True beauty lies in reflecting Christ, not in revealing the body.

PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY

1: Praise to the Lord, the Almighty the king of creation;
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation;
All ye who hear,
Brothers and sister draw near, Praise Him in glad adoration.

2: Praise to the Lord, who doth proper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do,
If with His love He befriend thee.

3: Praise to the Lord, who, when tempest their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around Thee are ranging, Biddeth them cease, Turneth their fury to peace, Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

4: Praise to the Lord, who when darkness and sin is abounding, Who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding, Sheddeth His light, chaseth the horrors of night, saints with His mercy surrounding.

5: Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before Him!
Let the Amen
Sound from His people again;
Gladly for aye we adore Him.

OH, MY COMRADES! SEE THE SIGNAL

1: Ho, my comrades, see the signal, waving in the sky!
Reinforcements now appearing, victory is nigh.

*"Hold the fort, for I am coming,"
Jesus signals still;
Wave the answer back to Heaven,
"By Thy grace we will."*

2: See the mighty host advancing,
Satan leading on;
Mighty ones around us falling,
courage almost gone!

3: See the glorious banner waving!
Hear the trumpet blow!
In our Leader's Name we triumph over every foe.

4: Fierce and long the battle rages,
but our help is near;
Onward comes our great Commander, cheer, my comrades, cheer!

COME WE THAT LOVE THE LORD

1: Come, we that love the Lord,
and let our joys be known.
Join in a song with sweet accord,
join in a song with sweet accord,
and thus surround the throne,
and thus surround the throne.

*We're marching to Zion, beautiful, beautiful Zion.
We're marching upward to Zion,
the beautiful city of God.*

2: The hill of Zion yields
a thousand sacred sweets,
before we reach the heav'nly fields,
before we reach the heav'nly fields,
or walk the golden streets,
or walk the golden streets

3: Then let our songs abound, and ev'ry tear be dry.
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
we're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
to fairer worlds on high,
to fairer worlds on high.

KING OF GLORY, KING OF PEACE

1: King of glory, King of peace,
I will love Thee;
And that love may never cease,
I will move Thee.
Thou hast granted my request,
Thou hast heard me;
Thou didst note my working breast,
Thou hast spared me.

2: Wherefore with my utmost art
I will sing Thee
And the cream of all my heart
I will bring Thee.
Though my sins against me cried,
Thou didst clear me;
And alone, when they replied,
Thou didst hear me.

3: Seven whole days, not one in seven,
I will praise Thee;
In my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise Thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort
To enrol Thee:
E'en eternity's too short
To extol Thee.

THERE IS A FOUNTAIN FILLED WITH BLOOD

1: There is a fountain fill'd with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins, And sinners plung'd beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains,

*He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities, The chastisement of our peace was upon Him,
And with His stripes we are heal'd
He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was wounded for our transgressions,
And with His stripes we are heal'd,
With His stripes we are heal'd.*

2: The dying thief rejoic'd to see That fountain in his day, And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

3: Thou dying Lamb: Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its pow'r,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

4: Then in a nobler, sweeter song, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save, When this poor, lisp'ing, stamm'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

DO YOU KNOW SERIES

DIVINE INTERRUPTION

Divine interruptions are not accidents—they are intentional moments where God steps into our routines to realign us with His purpose. While we may see them as inconvenient or unexpected, heaven sees them as necessary shifts toward destiny.

Mary experienced a divine interruption. She was a young woman engaged to be married, living a quiet life, when the angel Gabriel appeared with a message that would change history: she would bear the Savior of the world (Luke 1:26–38). Her plans were interrupted, but her obedience ushered in the greatest miracle of all.

God uses them to:

- Protect us from unseen danger
- Redirect us to a higher calling
- Refine our character and deepen our faith
- Position us for divine assignments
- Reveal His sovereignty and love

What seems like a delay is often preparation. What feels like a disruption is often elevation. God's interruptions are His way of saying, "I have something better."

So, do you know? When God interrupts, He is not stopping you—He is saving you from settling. He is leading you into something greater than you imagined. Trust the interruption. Embrace the redirection. His plan is perfect, and His timing is divine. Let your heart be open to the unexpected, because that's often where God does His greatest work.
