A SEAT IS RESERVED FOR YOU

Dearly Beloved, I welcome you to the blessed month of September, the ninth month of the year and the beginning of the New Redeemed Calendar Year. In Oyo Province 4, we rejoice together under the theme: "And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." — Galatians 6:9

UNDERSTANDING "DUE SEASON"

Life is a journey marked by times and seasons. Scripture assures us that God moves according to His divine timetable. Though delays may come, His promises never fail.

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest... shall not cease."
— Genesis 8:22

Your due season is God's appointed time for:

- Divine visitation
- Breakthrough
- Reward for steadfast faith and obedience

Biblical Examples of Waiting Even in Scripture, the faithful endured seasons of waiting:

- Joseph faced rejection and imprisonment before his elevation (Genesis 41)
- Hannah wept in barrenness until the Lord remembered her (1 Samuel 1)

Your waiting is not wasted. God is preparing your testimony.

Don't Faint Before the Harvest
Reaping in due season is conditional: "if we faint not."

Why we must not faint:

- Weariness can rob us of the harvest
- The enemy wants us to give up before breakthrough
- Perseverance is the key to reaping

Stay rooted in:

- Prayer
- Holiness
- Service to God

The Call to Evangelism
This season isn't just about personal blessings. It's also about the harvest of souls. "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few." — Matthew 9:37

Let us rise as laborers in God's vineyard:

- Share the gospel with love and urgency
- Win souls for Christ
- Sow eternal seeds

Your Season of Reaping As you sow seeds of:

- Kindness
- Faith
- Prayer
- Evangelism

Trust God for your harvest. Don't measure your due season by man's calendar—measure it by God's appointed time. "Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it." — 1 Thessalonians 5:24

Keep your hands to the plow, your eyes on Jesus, and your heart on the harvest. Surely, your season of reaping will come.

Final Blessing

Let September be your month of divine visitation. Expect the unexpected. Step out in faith. Win a soul for Christ. Water the seeds of righteousness you've sown.

Your due season is here you walk in it with confidence, joy, and thanksgiving.

Happy New Month!

May the Lord strengthen your faith, renew your spirit, and usher you into your season of divine reward.

With love and blessings,

Pastor O.V.
ADEGBORIOYE

POEM FOR THE MONTH

DUE SEASON SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

God is a Gent of seasons,
He crested times and seasons,
God is behind all seasons
He controls the sessions, at will.

Have you ever wondered,
Why requests are often delayed?
Why should God not just do it?
He can, but will not,
He acts only when the season is due

Surely, He sees not what we see
His ways, not our ways,
Knowing all, and seeing all,
Is Why He is God

Be not weary,
for you shall reap whatever sown;
In due season
If you faint not.

Has He not promised
To lead the blind
By the way they know not?
Lead them in paths they Knew not
Make darkness light before theme
And make crooked things straight?
Yes, He will, for you.

Has He not promised,
That He will hold thine hand?
I will keep thee, he said:
The former things are come to pass,
New things shall spring forth henceforth

Your due season is here,
He will not forsake you,
As you show perseverance
And trust in God's timing,
He shall bring forth
Your due season.

When your due season arrives,
It will wipe away your tears and fears
The Lord of host
Will fight, devour and destroy your shame
This shall be your
September, to remember.
AMEN.

Elder Kola Bello,

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT

EMBRACING THE FUTURE WITH FAITH: YOUTH AND ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

As technology advances, artificial intelligence (AI) is increasingly shaping our world. For we Christian youth, this presents both opportunities and challenges.

On one hand, AI can enhance learning, creativity, and innovation. On the other hand, it raises questions about ethics, purpose, and humanity's role.

The Bible teaches us in the book of Roman 12:2 "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind".

As we young people navigate this digital landscape, it's essential to ground our exploration in biblical values. By doing so, we can harness AI's potential while staying true to our faith. Let's encourage ourselves as youth to thoughtfully engage with AI, seeking wisdom and discernment as they shape the future.

May our faith inform our innovations, and may our innovation glorify God."

DUE SEASON

Galatians 6:9 KJV

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Due season can refer to as the appointed time or right time for a reward or answer to prayers. It can also be a time of total recovery.

Our bible text Gal. 6:9, has given us assurance that we shall reap in due season if we did not give up.

No matter what you are passing through, your due time awaits you.

Have you been disappointed after doing good?, don't be discouraged in due season you shall be rewarded.

In book of Est. 6:9-10 Mordecai was remembered by king, he was able to reap what he sow. Mordecai was honored, appreciated and promoted. What type of seed are you sowing?, is it good or bad, remember that in due season we shall all reap what we sow.

Due season comes with different things like honour, favour, blessings, promotion, breakthrough e.t.c I pray you shall not miss your due season in Jesus name.

THINGS TO DO

- Don't lose hope.
 - Be focus and don't be discourage.
 - Know that God's time is the best.
- Happy new month, God bless you.

FASHION, MODESTY & GODLINESS: A CHRISTIAN REFLECTION

In today's world, fashion has become one of the loudest voices shaping identity, self-expression, and even self-worth. From social media trends to celebrity styles, many young people and adults alike are constantly under pressure to "keep up" with the latest designs, often without questioning whether these choices align with their Christian faith.

As Christians, we are called to a higher standard—not one that condemns beauty or neatness, but one that reflects Christ in every area of our lives, including the way we dress. The Bible reminds us in 1 Timothy 2:9-10, "I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, adorning themselves, not with elaborate hairstyles or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God."

This scripture does not forbid fashion or the enjoyment of clothing. Rather, it teaches us balance. Dressing well is not a sin; after all, Joseph wore a coat of many colors (Genesis 37:3), and God Himself clothed Adam and Eve (Genesis 3:21). The issue lies not in clothes themselves, but in the intention and message behind them.

Modern fashion often celebrates immodesty, vanity, and pride—values that contradict godliness. Many styles today expose the body rather than honor it, leading to distraction, temptation, and sometimes loss of self-respect.

As Christians, our fashion choices should not provoke lust or envy but should point others to Christ through dignity and purity.

Godly dressing means:

Choosing outfits that respect your body as the temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Avoiding extremes—neither dressing carelessly nor dressing to show off.

Reflecting humility and grace in appearance.

Understanding that true beauty comes from a gentle and quiet spirit (1 Peter 3:3-4).

Ultimately, fashion fades, but godliness is eternal. The question we must ask ourselves daily is this: "Does my dressing glorify God or glorify the world?"

When our clothing choices honor God, we not only preserve our testimony but also inspire others to pursue holiness in a world that celebrates vanity. As Christians, we can be stylish without compromising modesty. True beauty radiates from within—a heart surrendered to Christ.

O MAGNIFY THE LORD WITH ME

1: O, magnify the Lord with me,
Ye people of His choice.
Let all to whom He lendeth breath
Now in His name rejoice.
For love's blest revelation,
For rest from condemnation,
For uttermost salvation,
To Him give thanks.

*Let all the people praise Thee.
Let all the people praise Thee,
Let all the people praise Thy name
Forever and forevermore.*

2: O, praise Him for His holiness,
His wisdom, and His grace;
Sing praises for His precious blood
Which ransomed all our race.
In tenderness He sought us;
From depths of sin He brought us;
The way of life then taught us.
To Him give thanks.

3: Had I a thousand tongues to sing,
The half could ne'er be told
Of love so rich, so full and free,
Of blessings manifold;
Of grace that faileth never,
Peace flowing as a river
From God, the glorious giver.
To Him give thanks.

OH FOR A THOUSAND TO SING

1: O for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

2: My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of Thy name.

3: Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

4: He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

5: Hear Him, ye deaf, His Praise, ye dumb
Your loosened tongue employ
Ye blind behold your saviour come
And leap, ye lame, for joy

THERE SHALL BE SHOWERS OF BLESSING

1: There shall be showers of blessing:
This is the promise of love;
There shall be seasons refreshing,
Sent from the Savior above.

*Showers of blessing,
Showers of blessing we need:
Mercy-drops round us are falling,
But for the showers we plead.*

2: There shall be showers of blessing,
Precious reviving again;
Over the hills and the valleys,
Sound of abundance of rain.

3: There shall be showers of blessing;
Send them upon us, O Lord;
Grant to us now a refreshing,
Come, and now honor Thy Word.

4: There shall be showers of blessing:
Oh, that today they might fall,
Now as to God we're confessing,
Now as on Jesus we call!

5: There shall be showers of blessing,
If we but trust and obey;
There shall be seasons refreshing,
If we let God have His way.

DEEPER DEEPER, IN THE LOVE OF JESUS

1: Deeper, deeper in the love of Jesus
Daily let me go;
Higher, higher in the school of wisdom,
More of grace to know.

*O deeper yet, I pray,
And higher every day,
And wiser, blessed Lord,
In Thy precious, holy Word.*

2: Deeper, deeper, blessed Holy Spirit,
Take me deeper still,
Till my life is wholly lost in Jesus,
And His perfect will.

3: Deeper, deeper! though it cost hard trials,
Deeper let me go!
Rooted in the holy love of Jesus,
Let me fruitful grow.

4: Deeper, higher, every day in Jesus,
Till all conflict past,
Finds me conqu'ror, and in His own image
Perfected at last.

JESUS KEEP ME IN YOUR LOVE

1: Jesus keep me in your love
There do dwell forever.
Fill me with your own spirit.
There to serve you ever.

*In your love, in your love
There to dwell forever
Jesus keep me in your love,
There to dwell forever*

2: Jesus keep me in your love
A living sacrifice,
Holy, willing, obedient,
There to serve you ever.

3: Jesus keep me in your love,
Loving you more than life,
Faithful to Thee to the end,
There to serve you ever.

4: Jesus keep me in your love
Hungering for you only
Thirsting for your righteousness
There to serve you ever.

DO YOU KNOW SERIES

WHY FORGIVENESS IS FREEDOM?

Forgiveness is one of the most powerful gifts God has given us, not just to extend to others, but to experience for ourselves. When we forgive, we release the burden of bitterness, resentment, and emotional pain that can weigh down our hearts and cloud our minds. Jesus taught us to forgive not as a suggestion, but as a command rooted in love and grace (Matthew 6:14–15).

Unforgiveness keeps us bound to the offense, replaying hurtful moments and building walls between us and peace. But forgiveness breaks those chains. It doesn't mean forgetting or excusing wrongs, it means choosing healing over hurt, and freedom over bondage.

Forgiveness reflects the heart of God. Just as He forgives us daily, we are called to mirror that mercy. It opens the door to restored relationships, emotional clarity, and spiritual renewal. It's not weakness, it's strength. It's not losing, it's letting go.

True freedom begins when we release others from our judgment and allow God to work in their hearts, and ours. When we forgive, we make space for joy, peace, and the presence of God to flourish.

Let forgiveness flow, and watch freedom follow.
